Let's Start!

A home is the place where you live. What is your home like?

Learning Outcome

Use information about locations of things to interact with others.

Ask your partner:

- Where do you live?
- What kind of building is it?

Can Do Statements

- I can say where I live.
- I can ask people where they live.
- I can express location.

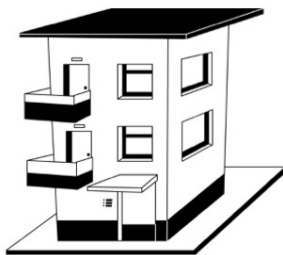

Let's Explore!

John and Sarah work together. They talk about where people live. Who lives on a farm?

* You live "on" a farm, but in a house or apartment building.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sarah: Hi, John! Where do you live?
John: I live in an apartment building. My apartment has two bedrooms. Do you live in a house?
Sarah: Yes, I live in a house on Maple Road.
John: What about your brother and his wife? Where do they live?
Sarah: They live on a farm.
John: Oh, that's nice. And your sister? Does she live in the city?
Sarah: Yes, she lives at 21 Oxford Street. Where do you live?
John: I live in a palace on James Street.
Sarah: What? You live in a palace?
John: I'm just joking! I don't live in a palace.

Let's Practice!
