Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Want to buy a beautiful house? Let me show you!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use basic information in simple situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you live in a house or apartment?
- What is your favorite room?

Can Do Statements

- I can write sentences using characteristics.
- I can describe a place like a house.
- I can use colors and patterns.

Let's Explore!

Mary wants to buy a new house. She likes a blue house*. Her friend, Paul, helps her.

* The adjective "new" describes the noun "house".

 The adjective "blue" describes the noun "house".

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Mary: Hi Paul. Is this beautiful blue house for sale?
Paul: Yes ... What do you think?
Mary: I love the quiet neighborhood and the yard is huge!
Paul: It is a large home. It has four big bedrooms and a new kitchen.
Mary: Can we go inside?
Paul: Sure ... but I need to call the owner first.
Mary: OK ... I can wait under the shady tree on the corner.

Let's Practice!

It's time to start organizing sentences!

Instructions: Choose the sentence that has an adjective before the noun.

1

I like the quiet neighborhood.
The yard is huge.
The house is large.
The kitchen is small.

Instructions: Choose the sentence that has an adjective after the verb to be.

2

The kitchen is huge.
I like the small yard.
I saw the large bedrooms.
We like the new house.

Let's Practice!

Tell me about the house.

Learning Points

Adjectives Before the Noun

Adjectives describe nouns. A noun is a person, place or thing.

Adjectives go before nouns. You can put more than one adjective before the noun.

Subject + Verb + Adjective + Noun

Subject + Verb	Adjective	Noun
It is a	big	house.
This is a	shady	tree.
I like the	new	kitchen.

Examples:

- It is a big house.

Adjectives After the Verb

You can also put adjectives after some verbs like to be (is/are).

Subject + Verb + Adjective

Noun	Verb	Adjective
The house	is	old.
The bedroom	is	blue.
The kitchen	is	new.

Examples:

- The house is big.
