Learning Points

Position of Adjectives

Colors and patterns describe things. They are adjectives.

They go before the noun, like the blue chair, or after some verbs, like the chair is beautiful.

Patterns are shapes or designs that are repeated.

| Colors        | Patterns | Example of Patterns                                                                  |
|---------------|----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| blue          | floral   |     |
| red           | solid    |   |
| red and white | printed  |   |
| grey          | dotted   |  |

Examples:

- I like the red carpet. (before the noun)
- Do you like my yellow pillow? (before the noun)
- The bedroom is green and blue. (after the verb to be)
- The walls are light grey. (after the verb to be)
