Let's Start!

Time for a trip! Pack your clothes! Don't forget anything!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use basic information in simple situations.

Ask your partner:

- Where do you want to go on your next holiday?
- What do you need to take with you?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about clothing and classroom objects.
- I can make and accept polite requests.
- I can express commands.

Let's Explore!

Mark packs clothes for a trip. Listen to his conversation with Tina.

* "Clothes" are the specific items you wear (shirt, pants, skirt ...). The word "clothes" is always plural.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Tina: Can I help you pack your clothes for your class trip?
Mark: Sure, thanks. Please hand me the blue shirt.
Tina: Sure, no problem. Here you go.
Mark: Thanks. Please pass me the pants and the pen on the chair. Where's my pencil?
Tina: Here, on the desk.
Mark: Great. Now, give me the jacket and notebooks on the floor.
Tina: With pleasure. There you go. Put on your sweater. It's cold outside.
Mark: OK, you're right. I need a sweater.
Tina: Do you want to take this nice skirt? What about this bag?
Mark: No thanks, I don't need that!

Let's Practice!

Mark asks Vanessa for help. He makes polite requests for some items.

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|-------------------|----------------------|
| 1 Pass me ... | A. no problem. |
| 2 Where is ... | B. pleasure. |
| 3 Please hand ... | C. a pencil, please. |
| 4 Sure, ... | D. my pencil? |
| 5 With ... | E. me the pants. |

Let's Practice!

Do you remember the names for clothes?

Instructions: Match the pictures with the words for clothing items.
