

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

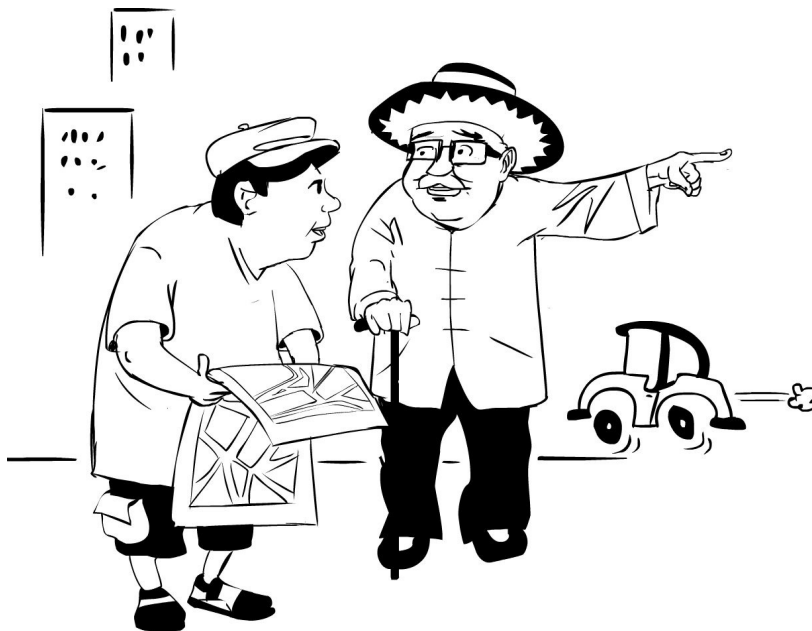

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Where is the library? How do I get there? I'm lost!

Learning Outcome

Use information about locations of things to interact with others.

Ask your partner:

- How do you get to your school or work?
- What do you do when you get lost?

Can Do Statements

- I can ask and say where places are.
- I can use commands to give directions.
- I can talk about the location of classroom objects.

Let's Explore!

Is the library at the corner? Let's find out!

* "Corner" is another word for intersection. An intersection is the place where two streets meet.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Tracey: Excuse me. How do I get to the library?
Passerby: That's easy. Go straight and turn left at the next corner.
Tracey: Sorry? Can you repeat that please? My notebook is at home.
Passerby: Sure. First, you go straight, and then you turn left at the intersection.
Tracey: Where? At the intersection?
Passerby: That's right. It's near the market.
Tracey: Sorry? Left or right?
Passerby: Left! Turn left!
Tracey: I understand. Thank you.
Passerby: No problem.

Let's Practice!

Did you understand the dialogue? Let's find out!

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with the correct words. Use right, store, library, left, or market.

1. Tracey wants to go to the _____.
2. Tracey has to turn _____ at the corner.
3. It's near the _____.

Let's Practice!

How do I get to the library?

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with the correct words. Use turn, go, corner. Use capital letters where necessary.

1. _____ straight ahead.
2. _____ right on Maple Street.
3. The library is on the _____ of Maple Street and John Street.

Extension Activity

Where is it?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Look at a map of a city.
- Choose a place on the map.
- Choose a second place on the map.
- Write directions from one place to the other.
- Use commands and expressions to give directions.
- Read your directions to a partner.
- Listen to your partner's directions.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write directions from one place to another.

☐ ☐

I give directions to a partner.

☐ ☐

I listen to directions.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- How do I get to ... ? (expression): use this question to ask for directions
e.g. How do I get to the library?
- straight (adjective): in a direct way
e.g. She walks straight to the bookstore.
- corner (noun): the place where two streets meet
e.g. It's on the corner of Maple Street and Pond Street.
- right (adjective): the direction opposite of left e.g. The library is on the right side.
- left (adjective): the direction opposite of right
e.g. Turn left at the corner.
- turn left / turn right (expression): an instruction to move in a different direction
e.g. Turn left on Maple Street.
- at home (expression): located in the place where you live
e.g. My notebook is at home.

Learning Points

Using Commands to Give Directions

When you give directions, you use verbs in the Imperative and expressions.

Verb in the Imperative	Expression	Example
Go	straight ahead	Go straight ahead.
Turn	right	Turn right at the corner.

