Learning Points

Describing People

You use adjectives to describe people. Adjectives are placed before the person, like she's an interesting girl, or after the verb to be, like she is interesting. Adjectives can describe physical features or personalities.

Physical Features	Personality
tall	interesting
short	smart
blond, blonde	fun
pretty	friendly

Examples:

- She's an interesting girl.
- She is smart and pretty.

Describing Feelings

When you describe feelings, you say I'm ... or I feel ... plus an adjective. Feelings are usually good or bad.

Good Feelings	Bad Feelings
happy	tired
excited	nervous
curious	sad

Examples:

- I'm nervous.
- I'm happy for you!
- I feel tired.
